1.0 INTRODUCTION

SumiSaujana Group Berhad (the “Company”) is obliged to formulate a fit and proper policy for the appointment, re-appointment and/or re-election of Directors of the Company and its subsidiaries (“SumiSaujana” or the “Group”) pursuant to the ACE Market Listing Requirements of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad (“AMLR”).

The Directors’ Fit and Proper Policy (“Policy”) sets out the approach, guidelines and procedures to ensure a formal, rigorous and transparent process is being adhered for the appointment, re-appointment and/or re-election of the Directors of the Group.

2.0 SCOPE

This Policy serves as a guide:

- i) to ensure all Directors of the Group have the necessary character, experience, integrity, competence and time to effectively discharge their role as Directors of the Group; and
- ii) to the Nomination Committee and Remuneration of the Company (“NRC”), the Board of Directors (“Board”) and Management of the Group in conducting the necessary assessment on candidates prior to the appointment of any candidate as a Director of the Group, or on existing Directors of the Group seeking for re-appointment and/or re-election.

3.0 FIT AND PROPER CRITERIA

In assessing the candidates identified to be appointed as Directors of the Group (“Candidate(s)”) and/or any existing Directors of the Group seeking for re-appointment and/or re-election (“Existing Director(s)”), the NRC and/or the Management will take into consideration the following criteria:

3.1 Character and Integrity

3.1.1 Probity

- An individual is compliant with legal obligations, regulatory requirements and professional standards.
- An individual has not been obstructive, misleading or untruthful in dealings with regulatory bodies or a court of law.

3.1.2 Personal integrity

- An individual has not perpetrated or participated in any business practices which are deceitful, oppressive, improper (whether unlawful or not), or which otherwise reflect discredit on his/her professional conduct.

- An individual's service contract (i.e. in the capacity of Management or Director) had not been terminated in the past due to concerns on personal integrity.
- An individual has not abused other positions (i.e. political appointment) to facilitate government relations for the company in a manner that contravenes the principles of good governance.

3.1.3 Financial integrity

- An individual manages personal debts or financial affairs satisfactorily.
- An individual demonstrates ability to fulfil personal financial obligations as and when they fall due, either in Malaysia or elsewhere.

3.1.4 Reputation

- An individual is of good repute in the financial and/or business community.
- An individual has not been the subject of civil or criminal proceedings or enforcement action, in managing or governing an entity for the past 10 years, either in Malaysia or elsewhere.
- An individual has not been substantially involved in the management of a business or company which has failed (including a GN3 or PN17 company), where that failure has been occasioned in part by deficiencies in that management.

3.2 Experience and Competence

3.2.1 Qualification, training and skills

- An individual possesses education qualification that is relevant to the skill set that the Director is earmarked to bring to bear onto the boardroom (i.e. a match to the Board's skill set matrix).
- An individual has a considerable understanding on the workings of a corporation.
- An individual possesses general management skills as well as understanding of corporate governance and sustainability issues.
- An individual keeps knowledge current based on continuous professional development.
- An individual possesses management and leadership capabilities and a high level of emotional intelligence.

3.2.2 Relevant experience and expertise

- An individual possesses relevant experience and expertise with due consideration given to past length of service, nature and size of business, responsibilities held, number of subordinates as well as reporting lines and delegated authorities.

3.2.3 Relevant past performance or track record

- An individual had a career of occupying a high-level position in a comparable organisation, and was accountable for driving or leading the organisation's governance, business performance or operations.
- An individual possesses commendable past performance record as gathered from the results of the Board Effectiveness Evaluation or based on the financial and non-financial performance of the corporation where the person identified for appointment as a director was involved.

3.3 Time and Commitment3.3.1 Ability to discharge role having regard to other commitments

- An individual is able to devote sufficient time as a Board member, having factored other external obligations including concurrent board positions held by the Director across listed companies and/or non-listed companies (including not-for-profit organisations).

3.3.2 Participation and contribution in the Board or track record (applicable for re-election of existing directors only)

- An individual demonstrates willingness to participate actively in Board activities.
- An individual demonstrates willingness to devote time and effort to understand the businesses and exemplifies readiness to participate in events outside the boardroom.
- An individual manifests passion in the vocation of a Director.
- An individual exhibits ability to articulate views independently, objectively and constructively.
- An individual exhibits open-mindedness to the views of others and ability to make considered judgment after hearing the views of others.

4.0 FIT AND PROPER ASSESSMENT AND PROCEDURES

- 4.1 The fit and proper assessment on any Candidates or on any Existing Directors shall be conducted before recommending to the Board for consideration and approval.
- 4.2 The assessment should take into consideration the suitability of Candidates against considerations such as competencies, commitment, contribution and performance, including the current composition of Board and Board committees (where applicable), mix of skills and experiences of Directors whilst taking into account the current and future needs of the Group, boardroom diversity (including gender diversity) and other soft attributes required as Directors. The assessment should be exercised objectively in the best interests of the Group.

4.3 The evaluation will be based on the fit and proper criteria set out in Clause 3 above. The criteria shall be assessed individually, as well as collectively, taking into account their relative importance. Failure to meet one criterion on its own does not necessarily mean failure to meet the fit and proper criteria.

4.4 Pre-requisites of Candidates before assessment, evaluation and approval by the NRC and/or the Board of the respective companies:

a) For appointment at the Company level

To complete and provide the following information:

- Fit and Proper Self-Declaration Form (Appendix 1) or such other form as determined by the NRC from time to time.
